

Recognizing Excellence Employees of the Month

Employees of the Month make important and positive contributions to the school community. Employees, parents, community members, elected officials, and students may submit nominations for this award. February's nominations are due by Friday, February 16th. Send an email that includes a complete description of why the employee is worthy of this recognition to barry.ricci@chariho.k12.ri.us. Thank you.